Flick Anticimex is expanding its presence in Cairns and Far North Queensland region through the acquisition of Pestrid Pest Management Services

Flick Anticimex continues its acquisition initiative with the acquisition of Pestrid Pest Management Services. This acquisition strengthens residential and commercial operations in Cairns and Far North Queensland.

Pestrid Pest Management Services is a proudly family-owned business based in Cairns, led by Duncan and Bryanne Priest. Since opening its doors in 2011, Pestrid has built a strong reputation for reliable service and has become a well-known name throughout the region.

Duncan and Bryanne Priest, Directors of Pestrid Pest Management Services commented:

"As we mark 14 incredible years in business, we extend our heartfelt thanks to our dedicated team, valued suppliers, and loyal customers. Your support has been the cornerstone of our success. Our journey has been driven by a passionate commitment to delivering exceptional customer service and professional pest control solutions. Now, as part of Flick Anticimex and the global Anticimex Group, we're excited to take our service to the next level. This partnership empowers us to offer cutting-edge, sustainable digital pest control solutions—enhancing the quality of our services and opening new opportunities for our team within a growing international organization."

Dallas Hall, Regional General Manager – North Region, Flick Anticimex commented:

"We're excited to announce our merger with Pestrid Pest Management Services, a respected and well-established business based in Cairns Queensland. Led by Duncan and Bryanne Priest, the team has built strong relationships with both residential and commercial clients. Their commitment to excellence aligns perfectly with Flick's values. Together, we'll combine decades of experience with the latest pest control innovations to deliver even greater value to our customers."
