Flick Anticimex grows its market share in Melbourne through the acquisition of Traps Pest Control (“Traps”)

Flick Anticimex continues its acquisition initiative in VIC. The acquisition of Traps strengthens the commercial operations in the city of Melbourne, VIC, based in Tullamarine.

Traps is currently led by Jack and Paula Loncar, who have been running the business for over 20 years. During this time Jack and Paula have grown the business to be a brand name with a strong reputation in Melbourne especially amongst the commercial customer base.

Jack Loncar, Managing Director of Traps Pest Control commented:

We are excited for the opportunity to join Flick Anticimex as it represents great opportunities for us and our team. We would like to thank our past and present team, as we wouldn't have built our business to where it is today without them. We look forward to offering our customers the same level of service and passion from our team, along with more efficient and sustainable digital pest control solutions. I am very proud of the success that our family-owned business has achieved and look forward to the exciting opportunities ahead.

Shaun Coe, Regional General Manager – South Region, Flick Anticimex commented:

“I am very happy and enthusiastic about this merger as Traps is a renowned and well-run business in the Melbourne commercial community, based in Tullamarine. We are all looking forward to working together with the Traps team, as their culture of excellence toward employees and clients aligns naturally with the way we do things at Flick. Combining our decades of experience with the latest technological innovations will result in an even better customer service experience.”
